

Schedule	Description	Speakers	Type & Language
Thursday 10th
6:45 PM – 9 PM	Opening- Plenary: “SSE and transformation“	Clarita Müller-Plantenberg (Forum SÖ), Josette Combes (RIPESS EU), Gabriele Wendorf (ZTG, TU Berlin), Paul Mason (The Guardian), Ursula Sladek (EWSchönau), Christoph Bautz (Campact), Barbara Muraca (Degrowth-Scientist, USA), Facilitated by: Silke Helfrich (Commons-Institut)	Panel EN/DE/FR/ES/PT HE 101
9 AM – 5:30 PM	URGENCI-RIPESS EU Writing a European Charter for Community Supported Agriculture: CSAs have many differences and also similarities. Jointly drafting a European Charter will help the movement to progress as a whole around shared principles. The workshop will continue on Friday 11th from 9 to 12.30 am	Limited to people involved in CSA - registration required with Jocelyn Parot (urgenci)	Closed workshop EN only ZTG, 6 th floor
Friday 11th
9 AM – 10:45 AM	Panorama of SSE in EUROPE: Presentation of the results collected during 2015 on the Panorama process: methodology, fieldwork, impact and interim results. Presentation of the website and think-tank Socioeco.org. Survey: http://panorama2015-ripests.questionpro.com/	Facilitated by: Josette Combes, Bérénice Dondéyne, Jordi Ribas, Françoise Wautiez With the participation of: Project SSEDAS (EU, Cospe), Project CATALISE (Portugal), Solidarity4All (Greece)	Forum EN/FR/DE MA 004
9 AM – 10:45 AM	Roundtable - Social Economy, Solidarity Economy, Social Enterprise and Social Innovation: what are the theoretical and political challenges in Europe? SSE appears as a sign of hope; it is possible to build a more just, less predatory and more democratic world. But it is not only necessary that the SSE ceases to be minority and wide; it is also very important to be able to respond to current challenges in Europe. This roundtable will attempt to delimit and define these concepts showing there is another economy conceptualization based on multitude of emanating experiences.	Facilitated by: Jean Louis Laville Speakers : Jean Louis Laville, Rogerio Amaro	Forum EN/FR/ES MA 005
9 AM – 12:30 AM	URGENCI-RIPESS EU Writing a European Charter for Community Supported Agriculture	Limited to people involved in CSA - registration required with Jocelyn Parot (urgenci)	Closed workshop EN only, ZTG
11 AM – 12:30 AM	Strategic and political reflections for RIPESS EU: Developing a condensed "political" and "strategic" document for RIPESS EU.	RIPESS EU members only Facilitated by: Eric Lavillunière	only RIPESS members, EN, MA 648

2:30 PM – 6:30 PM	RIPESS EU 4th General Assembly: RIPESS EU network General Assembly. The next 3 years strategy and alliances will be discussed, as well as the members and related networks.	Open to RIPESS-EU members and observers	RIPESS EU Assembly, EN/FR/ES MA 004
6:45 PM - 9:00 PM	Degrowth, Solidarity Economy and the Unions - how do they fit together? On this panel, we link degrowth, SSE and the work of unions. What chance do practical projects of alternative economies have in the surrounding growth economy? Does SSE need macro-economic degrowth concepts in order to gain a certain stability, or are solidarity companies the answer to missing growth in the global North? What is the situation like in Latin America?	Facilitated by: Nina Treu (Konzeptwerk Neue Ökonomie) Speakers: Luis Salcedo (Coordinator of RIPESS Intercontinental), Norbert Reuter (Ver.di), Janna Aljets (BUNDJugend & Degrowth Sommerschule)	Panel EN/FR/DE/ES MA 001
Saturday 12th
9 AM – 12:30 AM	Convergence of alter-economic movements involved in systemic change at European and International level: How to have a better influence on building shared strategies while preserving the identity of each organization. This will be a participatory plenary session (using the “fish bowl” technique) with 3 rounds: presentation and area of influence, challenges and what we can share to improve our actions and recognition of our movements.	Facilitated by: Eric Lavillunière , Dagmar Embshoff Speakers : Jason Nardi (RIPESS Europe), Pat Conaty (New Economic Foundation), Silke Helfrich (Commons Strategies Group), Michel Bauwens (CSG), Christian Felber (Economy for the Common Good), Nina Treu (Degrowth Movement), Thomas Dönnebrink (OUI Share), NN (Transition Towns), Victor Mesguer (Social Economy Europe)	Panel EN/DE/FR MA 004
9 AM – 12:30 AM	Food sovereignty and SSE. What are the key manifestations and criteria? What are the areas that are shared, and how can they be strengthened? This forum will bring together practitioners, both producers and consumers interested in how food as a human right lies at the heart of solidarity economy, CSAs, Community Gardens, allotments, Social inclusion gardening. in terms of bringing together local food systems and responsible consumption	Facilitated by: Paula Gioia (ECVC), Judith Hitchman (Urgenci) Part 1: Introduction to food sovereignty: La Via Campesina: (Paula Gioia , ECVC/LVC, Germany); Nyéléni Europe: (Ludwig Rumetshofer , ÖbV, Austria); Urgenci as part of Nyeleni Europe and the CSA movement: (Jocelyn Parot , Urgenci); Agroecology: (Andrea Ferrante , ECVC, Italy) Part 2: How do food sovereignty, Agroecology and solidarity economy fit together?: The theory (Judith Hitchman , Urgenci, France); Food in an economy in crisis (Jenny Gkiugki , Neighbourhoods in action, Greece); Urban/community gardens (Elizabeth Mayer-Rentschhausen , Allmende Kontor, Germany); Ehne Bizkaya's (Basque Country) film: "Bide Berriak" introduced by Isa Alvarez	Forum EN/DE/FR/ES/PT MA 001
11 AM – 12:30 AM	University SSE Networks – Exchanging experiences: An invitation to scholars to share their experiences and collectively think about possible avenues of cooperation, such as common calls for action and the formation of an international university network around the theme	Facilitated by: Veronika Kienen Dias (Brazilian Sociologist, University of São Paulo). Speakers: Prof. Dr. Rosangela Alves de Oliveira (Federal University of Rio Grande do Norte (UFRN)), Dr. Flávio Chedid	Forum FR/EN/PT/DE MA 005

	of building SSEs. Brazilian universities play an important role in incubating SSE enterprises. Two university networks exist comprising ca. 40 universities each, which promote such incubation processes.	(Nucleus of Technical Solidarity, Federal University of Rio de Janeiro (UFRJ), Ph. D. Isidor Wallimann (Syracuse University, New York), Josette Combes (President of NOVETAT))
2:30 PM – 4 PM	Challenging the Crisis Project, SSE Campaign "Change the economy: think social." Young Global Advocates representing a consortium of NGOs from Greece, Ireland, Italy, Portugal, Slovenia and Spain. This workshop will offer a unique, youth-based approach to campaigning for SSE with a development education focus. YGAs will be explaining the genesis of the original development education project and its transformation to a campaign on SSE.	Facilitated by: Elena Novillo Martín (EsF), Aoife McNamara (IDEA), Constance Laisné (Altgen). Speakers: CtC Young Global Advocates - Names TBC	Open Workshop EN only MA 749
2:30 PM – 4 PM	The post-2015 international sustainable development agenda: what is at stake for the SSE? The year 2015 will be crucial to define the orientations and means of implementation of the international development agenda. What are the opportunities and challenges for SSE actors to scale up the recognition of SSE's contribution to sustainable development?	Facilitated by: Yvon Poirier (RIPESS North America) Speakers: Madani Koumaré (RENAPESS - Mali, RAESS), Yvon Poirier (RIPESS North America), Jason Nardi (RIPESS Europe), Hani May (Social Protection Unit, FAO), Jürgen Schwettmann (ILO), Claire des Mesnards (Global Call to Action against Poverty)	Forum EN/ES/FR MA 004
2:30 PM – 4 PM	Roundtable a: Institutional Dialogue between SSE and political institutions: What is the relationship today between SSE actors and the political landscape? Where do old and new political parties stand with regards to alternative economic approaches and their promotion? How is the EU Parliament moving, beyond the social business and green economy approach? Is it possible to create new spaces of political dialogue between political institutions and grassroots SSE networks and initiatives to promote the development of SSE both at the EU and at the local level?	Facilitated by: Josette Combes (MES – Mouvement pour l'Economie Solidaire, France) Speakers: Miguel Urbán Crespo (MEP Podemos-GUE/NGL, Spain), Georgia Bekridaki (Solidarity4All, Greece), Andrea Calori (Milan Food Policy Council, Italy), Annie Berger (RTES, France), Jordi Via (Ajuntament de Barcelona, Catalonia)	Forum EN/DE/FR MA 005
4:30 PM – 6 PM	Roundtable b: Public Policies and legislations in progress on SSE in Europe: How do the EU institutions promote “the spread and strengthening of the SSE as key driver of economic and social development in the European Union”, online with the EU 2020 strategy? European parliament's Social Economy intergroup states that “social economy is able to bring innovative solutions for social cohesion and inclusion, job creation, entrepreneurial spirit, growth and the promotion of active citizenship». Although some work has been made during the last Parliament's and Commission's mandates, a lot still	Facilitated by: Kenneth Quiguer (tbc) Speakers: Emily Mattheissen (HIC), Carlos De Freitas (FMDV), Françoise Bernon (Labo ESS, France), Sven Giegold (MEP Greens/EFA Germany), Andrea Calori (Urgenci/CSA)	Forum EN/DE/FR MA 005 has to be done in the direction of a broader and transforma-tive vision of SSE, promoting a common framework for its development.

6:45 PM - 9 PM	Building alternatives to free trade: Making the alliance to stop TTIP and all other “free trade” agreements while developing the fair and solidarity international trade. What impact do TTIP, TISA, TPP, EPAs and the ISDS mechanism have also on local economies and food sovereignty? What is our response? A panel to debate how to join forces among the different social movements and SSE initiatives.	Facilitated by: Monica Di Sisto (Fairwatch) Speakers: Brid Brennan (TNI), Rudi Dalvai (WFTO), Jürgen Schwettmann (ILO), Florent Marcellesi (MEP, EQUO), Christian Felber (GWÖ)	Panel EN/DE/FR HE 101
Sunday 13th
9 AM – 10:30 AM	Building a social market – bottom up strategies for developing SSE: Social markets are emerging as one of the main strategies for promoting and consolidating SSE at territorial level. They emerge bottom up and are formed by all those people and organizations who develop an economic activity of production, distribution, consumption and savings/investment; developed under social, democratic, sustainable, environmentally and common goods-friendly criteria. They involve various tools like social audits, mapping, education for development or sectorial and territorial meetings.	Facilitated by: Fernando Paniagua (XES Spain) Speakers: Ruben Surinach (XES Spain), Amanda Ortega	Forum ES/EN/FR MA 041
10:30 AM – 11:30 AM	Communication for transformation – SSE through the media: Is it possible to build a strategic media partnership with existing alternative and mainstream media?	Facilitated by: Jason Nardi , Françoise Wautiez	Open Workshop EN/ FR MA 749
11 AM – 13:30 AM	Closing plenary : “Steps towards transformation“ / Results - “ We know other ways “	Eric Lavillunière (RIPESS Europe), Georgia Bekidraki (Solidarity4All, Greece), Sven Giegold (MEP), Thomas Brose (Klimaallianz), Facilitated by: Nina Treu (Konzeptwerk Neue Ökonomie)	Panel EN/DE/FR/ES/PT HE 101